3 ottobre 2008

17:30 – Registrazione
18:30 – Opening Lecture
Stephen Littlechild
(Judge Business School, Cambridge)

19:30 – Cocktail

4 ottobre 2008

Presiede:
Jean-Pierre Centi
(Università Paul Cézanne – Aix-Marseille)

9:00 – Sessione mattutina
Ruan Yehai & Dong Shijing (Università Paul Cézanne – Aix-Marseille)
Anti-administrative monopoly and its legal rules in China
Discussant:
Ronald Cass (Boston University School of Law)
Paul Beaudry (Ogilvy Renault, LLP)
Against Policy-Induced Competition in the Telecommunications Sector
Discussant:
Wayne Crews (Competitive Enterprise Institute)
Juan Kornblüth (CEICS, Buenos Aires)
The Monopoly Capital Debate. An approach from Argentina’s economic history
Discussant:
Vito Tanzi (InterAmerican Development Bank)

14:30 – Sessione pomeridiana
Remigijus Simasius (Lithuanian Free Market Institute)
Competition Agencies and Competition Distortion. Lithuanian Case
Discussant:
William Shughart III (University of Mississippi)

Alberto Martinazzi (Gianni Origoni Grippo & Partners)
The role of competition and consumer policy in the energy, telecoms and banking markets
Discussant:
Pippo Ranci (Università Cattolica di Milano)

18:30 – Tavola Rotonda
The Financial Turmoil: Where It Comes From, Where It Goes
Presiede:
Daniel Schwammenthal (The Wall Street Journal Europe)
Partecipano:
Lorenzo Bernaldo de Quiros (Freemarket International Consulting)
Antonio Foglia (Banca del Ceresio)
Giampaolo Galli (AMIA)
Nikolay Nenovsky (Governing Board, Bulgarian National Bank)
Alessandro Penati (Università Cattolica di Milano)

5 ottobre 2008

Presiede:
Jean-Pierre Centi
(Università Paul Cézanne – Aix-Marseille)

9:00 – Sessione mattutina
Brandon Petelin (London School of Economics)
A Substantial Step with Vague Consequences: Evaluating China’s Antimonopoly Law
Discussant:
Victoria Curzon Price (Università de Geneve)
Georges Vallindas (Università Paul Cézanne – Aix-Marseille)
Stepping Over the Hurdle Rather Than Jumping Over It: EU Judges Facing Complex Economic Assessment.
Discussant:
Alberto Pera (Gianni Origoni Grippo & Partners)
Parashar Kulkarni (Centre for Development Finance, Chennai, India)
GATS and Domestic Regulatory Reform: Analysing the Linkages
Discussant:
Simon Evenett (Università St. Gallen)

12:15 – Closing lecture
William Niskanen
(Cato Institute)